SENATOBIA, Miss., April 29. (Spl.)
—Cotton planting is under full headway in Tate county, and it is hard to tell whether the acreage will materially reduced from that of last year or not. In some localities it will be reduced while in others as much cotton is being planted as was planted just year. The corn and forage acreage will not be reduced and the best lands are being planted in corn. The acreage planted in aweet potatoes will be more than doubled.

LABOR DISPUTE UP.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., April 29. (Sp.).—
The members of the Bullders' Trades council are threatening to quit work on all jobs where plumbers are employed because the latter are not members of the council. The plumbers are members of the plumbers' union and affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, but the other trades are insisting that they join the builders' council also.

Some of the carpenters quit work Saturday but went back Monday.
